Synergy People specialises in the provision of professional people consulting services, delivering strategies and tools that assist clients to optimise the strength, agility and performance of their workforce.

Our dedicated professional services team is focused on workforce planning, administration and performance, underpinned by our people intelligence platform.

We have identified that the traditional “one-size fits all” solutions are not adequately meeting the needs of modern organisations.

To solve this problem, we have developed a toolbox of bespoke solutions that can be individually tailored or integrated to meet the unique requirements of each client.

All of our recruitment services are underpinned by Synergy Jobfit, our leading global people intelligence platform, allowing you to make more informed decisions about:

- Hiring the right people
- Driving performance
- Improving team dynamics
- Engaging, retaining and increasing wellbeing
